

MARKUS WEISE

Head of the Competence Centre of DFB Academy (2015-2019)
Coach of the German National Hockeyteam (2006-2015)

Markus Weise is one of the most successful German coaches. At the London Olympics in 2012 and in 2008 in Peking he won the Gold Medal with the German Men's National Team. In 2004 in Athens he also won the Gold Medal with the German Women's National Field Hockey Team thus becoming the first coach in history of field hockey to win an Olympic Gold medal in both the Men's and Women's competitions. From 2015 to 2019 he serves as head of concept development for DFB football academy. Since 2019 he is head of the Bundesstützpunkt Hockey in Hamburg.

Since 2006 he was the Head of the German National Field Hockey Team. Previously he was the coach of the German Women's National Field Hockey Team. As a club coach in the German Bundesliga (1st Division) he was the head coach for many years with the TSV. He was awarded coach of the Year in 2011 by the German Olympic Sports Association. In 2011 and 2013 he became European Champion with the Men's Field Hockey Team and 2 x World and European Champion with the Men's Indoor Hockey Team.

Markus Weise believes in treating all his players with respect. In return he expects a high degree of self-discipline and performance. Highly motivated people and good teamwork will ultimately lead to success in sport as well as in business. Markus uses parallels between his work as a coach and the successful leadership of an organisation to illustrate how to achieve one's goals..

His inspirational presentations make him a highly sought after speaker at events throughout the world.

Topics (Selection):

- Motivation and Goals
- Teamwork and Teamdynamics
- Values and People Oriented Leadership
- Performance and Success
- Olympic Games